Cummings Breaks Ranks.

Partisan applause came from each side to cheer the respective champions and there seemed to be a solid line-up on each side of the political affair. But when the vote came Mr. Cummings, a New York democrat, voted with the republicans, turning angrily on his political brethren as he did so and,
with clinched fist in their faces, crying out that he hoped he might be paralyzed when he refused to vote to protect an American soldier.

The vote on the adoption of the amendment stood, ayes 127, nays 100. Before the general debate closed Mr Watson paid a beautiful tribute to the late

Mr. Padgett of Tennessee advocated the adoption of a declaration in favor of pledging the United States to give independence to the Philippines.

Watson Defends Administration.

After some further remarks by Mr. Candler of Mississippi and Mr. Zenor of Indiana, Mr. Watson of Indiana closed the general debate with an hour's speech in defense of the administration's Philippine policy. He denounced the statement which, he said, was made on the other side that the United States had taken the place of Spain as the despoiler of the Philippines. He produced figures from the Spanish budget to show that 50 per cent of all the revenues of the islands under the Spanish regime was diverted to the mother country. On the other hand, he says ever dollar raised from taxation since the Amer ican occupation had gone into the insular territory. He then contrasted what we were doing in the islands in the way of education, public improvements, etc., with what was done in the old Spanish days.

While he was speaking Mr. Gaines of Tennessee attempted to ask him a ques-

(Prolonged applause on the republican side).

The bill was read for amendment under the five minute rule. Mr. Cochran of Missouri declared that the attempts to subjugate the Filipino people already had cost the United States more than enough to build the Nicaragua canal and to construct 300 warships to defend it, yet the end was not in sight. When the appropriation of $500,000 for military post at Manila was reached a half visitors in Modern Woodmen hall tonight.

Mr. Cannon urged Mr. Hull to let the other side make the point of order. "I hope the gentleman will not lecture his own side of the house," observed Mr. Richardson. Thereupon Mr. Cannon confessed the point of order and the appropriation was ruled out.

In lieu of the provision Mr. Cannon offered the following amendment: "For the proper shelter and protection of officers and enlisted men of the United States army on duty in the Philippines, to WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 .- Some of the be expended in the discretion of the presi-

The discussion over the point of order was drawn out for over an hour, at the end of which time Mr. Sherman of New York, who was in the chair, overruled it and was sustained by the house-127 to 110. Mr. Fleming of Georgia voted with the republicans to sustain the chair.

The vote then recurred upon Mr. Cannon's amendment. As it was being taken a dramatic incident occurred. The solid republican side arose in support of it and with the republicans a solitary democrat, Mr. Cummings of New York, stood up. Turning upon his fellow democrats and shaking his fist in their faces, Mr. Cummings shouted: "When I refuse to protect the life of an American soldier I hope I may be paralyzed." Count you Buclow Endorses Friendly Remarks, but Directs Attention to Difficulties in Formu-Inting Tariff Policy.

BERLIN, Jan. 22 .- During the debate on the estimates of the chancellor's departlaid before the senate a letter from Samuel ment in the Reichstag today the imperial chanceller, Count you Buelow, referred to Compers, president of the American Fedthe pleasant relations between Germany and the United States and to the approach ing visit of Prince Henry of Prussia. The chancellor found his opportunity in the remarks of Dr. Barth, leader of the freissinnige party, who, in discussing the budget anid:

The miners cheered President Mitchell when he came in. A minute after taking up the gavel he said he felt it would be more satisfactory to the convention at large if a delegate from each of the two additional districts to which Miss Meredith's charges had been sent be appointed on the committee named to investigate.

W. D. Van Horne, who presided yesterday, took the chair and appointed Delegate Lawrence Love of District 13 of Iowa and Pat Dolan of District 5 of Pennsylvania.

Thereupon President Mitchell resumed charge of the convention. The first order I want to touch on the political retathe two countries is a thing to be grate estimate the difficulties from the way in which we formulate our tariff policy. (Appliause on the right.)

I can only repeat what I said three years ago in the Refchstag, and I believe the views I then set forth in detail will today meet with the concurrence of the house-namely, that we are filled with an earnest desire to maintain, on the basis of perfect reciprocity and mutual appreciation, the traditional good relations which have always existed between ourselves and the United States. The voyage of Prince Henry to America is an expression of these good relations and I am convinced his reception will be in accord with the his reception will be in accord with the friendly feelings the two great nations

The chanceltor's statement was greeted with prolonged cheers from all parts of the house.

Adhere to Reciprocity.

Dr. Oertel, conservative, said the right attached as great importance to the maintenance of good relations with the United States as the left, but these relations would not be maintained by means of economic concessions. The closer these relations the closer attention should be paid to the preservation of reciprocity. Chancellor von Buelow, rising, said he wished it to be understood that his previous reference to perfect reciprocity and mutual understanding referred not only to the United States, but equally to all other countries of the world.

MALONEY'S WEDDING DAY-

THREE CHICAGO DOCTORS

Failed to Do for Miss Mabelle L. La Monte What Was Accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM : - I was in an awful state for nearly three years with a complication of female troubles which three physicians called by different names, but the pains were all the same. I dreaded the time of my monthly periods for it meant a couple of days in bed in awful agony. I finally made up my mind that the good doctors were guessing; and hearing from different friends such good reports of Lydia E. Pinkham's Veg-etable Compound, I tried that. I bless the day I did, for it was the dawning of a new life for me. I used five bottles before I was cured, but when they were taken I was a well woman once more. Your Compound is certainly wonderful. Several of my friends have used it since, and nothing but the best do I ever hear from its use." — Yours, Mabelle L. LaMonte, 222 E. 31st St. Chicago, Ill.—$5000 forfelt if above testimonial is not genuine.

If Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound could cure Miss LaMonte-why not you? Try it and see for yourself.

Mrs. Pinkham advises sick women free. Address, Lynn, Mass.

169 Pictures in the February Number Magazine

Indicates in the most convincing manner and worth more from an artistic and pictorial point of view than ever. Here are some of the BEST THINGS in February BROADWAY MAGAZINE.

1. It starts off with "Stories of the Studios," by George Granby, the art manager of Broadway Magazine. Mr. Granby's lengthy experience of studio life in New York makes him unusually well fitted for such a series of short stories and comments. This series is attractively gotten up in color.

2. The great "Du Earry" play is conclusive.

2. The great "Du Barry" play is concisely described and illustrated by the editor. Interesting and hitherto unpublished details about this magnificent production. Flash lights, phytographs and rigid sketches.
3. Broadway Magazine is starting a series of descriptive articles about the American girl. The New York girl has the first call.

ican girl. The New York girl has the first cail.

4. An odd and unique article entitled "Husbands with Wives and Wives with Husbands," has sixteen photo-ilinatrations.

5. 6. 7. New York, as the city, is rated in three distinct ways: Its Alpinelike appearance (for the palisades); its views when covered with enow, and its sky line. All aniquely illustrated

8. "Plays Seen in New York This Season." Seven pages of interesting reading matter, with fourteen flash light photographs, cover this subject exhaustively and as up-to-date as possible.

9. "The Eddy Girl" is the first of the series of "Girls of Famous American Artists" which Broadway Magazine has started. Each one to be illustrated with an original picture, drawn especially for Broadway Magazine by each artist discussed.

10. An interesting article on "Women of the World," giving Miss Elsle De Wolfe's endorsement of Inem, is flustrated.

11. Mr. Parker Scott Alleger writes entertainingly on a subject that could easily be made duil: "Women in Furs." Mr. Alleger's life experience with all kinds of furs and his knowledge of the subject way back makes his article almost thrilling. Fifteen illustrations of pretty women in furs.

The various features that regular readers of Broadway Magazine expect to find each month are to be found in their places, towit: "Scandals of Society," Tales from Headquarters," in Gay Parce" and "The Red Soubrette."
